

Email from Austin Independent School District on 10/24/2025

Good afternoon, I got an update from our translation services. It will cost $60 per hour. If the interpreter spent an hour on each multi-page file, the cost would be about $50,000. It is possible to set up a time to come to our AISD Central Office and view the records. I believe this will take several hours as well.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Kind regards,
Melody Byrd

Good morning, Simone. I hope you are well. We recovered 844 individual records for your request, most of which are in Arabic. We will need to review them all to make sure that they are responsive to your request and that student information is not included in any of the records. This will require us to hire an interpreter and will increase the cost to fulfill your request. I do not have a new cost estimate for you yet, but I should have it for you soon. I appreciate your patience as we work to fulfill your request.

Kind regards,
Melody Byrd
